The musical score is written for a vocal soloist (Gil) and piano accompaniment (Pno.). It consists of four systems of music. The first system (measures 180-182) shows Gil singing 'smokes his big cher-oots so' with a piano accompaniment of chords and eighth notes. The second system (measures 183-185) shows Gil singing 'Smo-key wants to rope my wife the way he'd rope a cow And' with a piano accompaniment of chords and eighth notes. The third system (measures 186-188) shows Gil singing 'tell her for-get that hus-band of yours, you're in fla-vor coun-try now!' with a piano accompaniment of chords and eighth notes. The fourth system (measures 189-191) shows a piano solo with a descriptive note: '(Another dance, a la Agnes DeMille. At the end, GIL tries to ape SMOKEY's high flying moves. he falls to the floor, SMOKEY carries SUSAN off)'. The piano part features a series of chords and eighth notes, with a dynamic marking of 'f' (forte) at measure 189.
